Sub: Newspaper History on Murals for new APNS Headquarters.

Dear Sirs,

We are pleased to inform you that the APNS has started the construction of APNS Headquarters at Karachi which is expected to be completed in the month of August 2011. The Prime Minister of Pakistan has very kindly consented to inaugurate the new building at a promptuous ceremony.

In this respect, the APNS has assigned a very senior artist to produce / paint the history of the newspaper industry and the APNS on 30 large exquisite murals which will be installed at the Conference Hall of the building. The murals will depict role of newspapers through the coverage of major political, social and historic events during the last 64 years through the portray of newspaper clippings and display of the events in artistic way.

We therefore request you to kindly send us following :

- a) The original / scanned copy of the first issue of your publication.
- b) The 1st copy of your publication after adoption of computerized composing and page making, if your publication entered into the new technology phase from type setting composing / calligraphic mode.
- c) The coverage by your newspaper of events during the struggle / creation of Pakistan, if your newspaper was brought out before the formation of the new state.
- d) The coverage of major events that constitute the chequered history of Pakistan with political, social and economic aspects of the Society

Please rest assured that the original issues sent by you, will be returned to you after scanning etc.

We shall be grateful, if you will kindly treat this communication as most important and contribute towards the construction of the APNS Headquarters by providing the required material.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,

-s/d-
